Long version:

Wolves Summit, the highest-quality multinational conference dedicated to innovation in technology is coming back to Warsaw, Poland on 24-25 March 2020. It's a world-famous event for startups, investors and corporations willing to change the future of technology and build relevant business connections.

It's a unique opportunity to meet 1:1 with 450 startups, 250 investors and 450 corporates. Thanks to the advanced matchmaking tool available before and during the conference, the participants will be able to schedule over 4500 well-matched meetings.

To enable startups from all sectors and at different stages of development to use the leverage of Wolves Summit and to ensure the highest relevance of those present, the organizers will select 450 tech startups and invite them to join the conference for free. The Wolves Summit will also host the next edition of The Great Pitch startup competition. Conference participants will also have the opportunity to listen to experts. The topics of this edition will revolve around corporate and ecological responsibility in business, the future of medicine and the power of digital image. Specialists on the Wolves Summit stage will also talk about the startup landscape in Central and Eastern Europe.
